

2012 Rocky Mountain Horse Expo

Ride with the Experts Program

Just released. . . Don't miss out. . . Early Registration Information

The 2012 Expo has just released the schedule for the Ride with the Experts Program. All of the Expo program clinics have pretty low maximum number of riders. If you'd like to get one of those spots, you might want to register soon.

Here are the Jeff & Gerrie Barnes clinics, dates, and times.
All four clinics are held in the Stadium Arena.

March 9 - Friday - 11:00 a.m. Cattle Work for Rookies
4 Clinic riders maximum

Requirements: Advanced Novice & Up with good control of your horse

This clinic is designed for riders new to cattle work. Introduce your horse to cattle safely, slowly, and correctly.

March 10 - Saturday - 8:00 a.m. Mini-Cattle Drive
5 Clinic riders maximum

Requirements: Advanced Novice & Up with good control of your horse

NEW Expo Clinic!!! Lots of fun!!! The five clinic riders will work as a group, using rodear techniques, to drive a small herd of cattle through a series of obstacles. If your horse is calm around cattle, we'll teach you the rest.

March 11 – Sunday – 8:00 a.m.
Foundation Maneuvers
6 Clinic riders maximum

Requirements: Advanced Novice & Up

Learn to control the separate parts of the horse. A must for advancement in ALL disciplines and events . . . English or Western.

March 11 – Sunday – 11:00 a.m. Performance Riding 6 Clinic riders maximum

Requirements: Novice & Up. Ability to walk and trot your horse

Performance Riding is the ability of the rider to cue the horse from the seat and legs with minimal use of the reins. It's the next step up from directly your horse using reins and the start of actively riding your horse as a true partner.
